All: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do,
through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

into everlasting life.

in the glory of God the Father.

All: Amen.

First Reading

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

(1:3–8)

You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes, and then you will be my witnesses.

Jesus had shown himself alive to the apostles after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he had continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God. When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. ‘It is,’ he had said, ‘what you have heard me speak about: John baptised with water but you, not many days from now, will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.

Now having met together, they asked him, ‘Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel?’ He replied, ‘It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth.’

The word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

R: Send forth your Spirit, O Lord, and renew the face of the earth.

(Ps. 103:1.24.27–28.30–31.33–34)

1. Bless the Lord, my soul!
Lord God, how great you are.
How many are your works, O Lord!
In wisdom you have made them all.
The earth is full of your riches. R.
2. All of these look to you.
To give them their food in due season.
You give it, they gather it up:
you open your hand, they have their fill R.

3. You send forth your spirit, they are created;
and you renew the face of the earth.
May the glory of the Lord last for ever!
May the Lord rejoice in his works! R.

4. I will sing to the Lord all my life, make music to my God while I live.
May my thoughts be pleasing to him.
I find my joy in the Lord. R.

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Galatians

(5:16–17.22–25)

Since the Spirit is our life, let us be directed by the Spirit.

If you are guided by the Spirit you will be in no danger of yielding to self-indulgence, since self-indulgence is the opposite of the Spirit, the Spirit is totally against such a thing, and it is precisely because the two are so opposed that you do not always carry out your good intentions. What the Spirit brings is very different: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustfulness, gentleness, and self-control. You cannot belong to Christ Jesus unless you crucify all self-indulgent passions and desires.

Since the Spirit is our life, let us be directed by the Spirit.

The Word of the Lord.

R. Thanks be to God.

All stand.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Come Holy Spirit,
fill the hearts of your faithful,
and kindle in them the fire of your love.
Alleluia!

The Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

(1:9–11)

He saw the Spirit descending on him.

Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptised in the Jordan by John. No sooner had he come up out of the water than he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit, like a dove, descending on him. And a voice came from heaven, ‘You are my Son, the Beloved; my favour rests on you’.

The Gospel of the Lord.

R: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

All sit during the homily

Renewal of Baptismal Promises

After the homily the Celebrant questions the children:

Celebrant: Do you reject Satan and all his works and all his empty promises?

The candidates respond together:

Candidates: I do.

Celebrant: Do you believe in God the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth?

Candidates: I do.

Celebrant: Do you believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was born of the Virgin Mary, was crucified, died, and was buried, rose from the dead, and is now seated at the right hand of the Father?

Candidates: I do.

Celebrant: Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who came upon the apostles at Pentecost and today is given to you in the sacrament of Confirmation?

Candidates: I do.

Celebrant: Do you believe in the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sin, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting?

Candidates: I do.

Celebrant: This is our faith. This is the faith of the Church. We are proud to profess it in Christ Jesus our Lord.

All reply: Amen.

Laying on of Hands

Then the Celebrant (together with the priests assisting him) stands with joined hands, facing the people, and says:

My dear friends:

In baptism God our Father gave the new birth of eternal life to his chosen sons and daughters.

Let us pray to our Father that he will pour out the Holy Spirit to strengthen his sons and daughters with his gifts and anoint them to be more like Christ, the Son of God.

All then pray in silence for a while.

The following hymn may be sung if desired.

1. Come Holy Ghost, Creator come,
Descend from heaven's throne,
Come take possession of our hearts,
And make them all your own.
2. Then come great Spirit to your own,
Our hearts make pure and strong,
Direct our weary steps today,
And turn our wills from wrong.
3. All glory to the Father be,
With his eternal son,
The same unto the Paraclete,
While endless ages run.

The Celebrant (and the priests assisting him) impose their hands over those to be confirmed. The Bishop alone says:

All powerful God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, by water and the Holy Spirit you freed your sons and daughters from sin and gave them new life.
Send your Holy Spirit upon them to be their helper and guide.
Give them the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of right judgement and courage,
the spirit of knowledge and reverence.
Fill them with the spirit of wonder and awe in your presence.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Anointing with Chrism

It is left to the discretion of the parish priest and teachers how they organise candidates approaching the altar to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation.

The priest or teacher tells the celebrant the first Christian name and the Confirmation name of the candidate to be confirmed.

Using a cotton bud, the celebrant traces the sign of the cross on the forehead of each candidate with chrism, saying:

N....., be sealed with the Gift of the Holy Spirit.

The candidate replies: Amen.

The celebrant adds: Peace be with you.

The candidate answers: And with your Spirit.

During the anointing with chrism suitable hymns may be sung, such as:

1. My God, accept my heart this day,
And make it wholly thine,
That I from thee no more may stray,
No more from thee decline.
2. Anoint me with thy heavenly grace,
And seal me for thy own;
That I may see thy glorious face,
And worship at thy throne.
3. Let every thought, and work, and word,
To thee be ever given;
Then life shall be thy service, Lord,
And death the gate of heaven.

Prayer of the Faithful

The Prayer of the Faithful to be composed by the local community.

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

When the Prayer of the Faithful has been said, Mass continues in the normal way.

Prayer over the Offerings

Celebrant Receive in your mercy, O Lord, the prayers of your servants and grant that, being conformed more perfectly to your Son, they may grow steadily in bearing witness to him,
as they share in the memorial of his redemption,
by which he gained for us your Holy Spirit.
Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer II

The Celebrant, with hands extended says:

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All: It is right and just.

Celebrant: It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God,
through Christ our Lord.

Ascending above all the heavens and sitting at your right hand, he poured out the promised Holy Spirit on your adopted children.

Therefore, now and for ages unending, with all the host of Angels,
we sing to you with all our hearts,
crying out as we acclaim:

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant: You are indeed Holy, O Lord, the fount of all holiness.

Make holy, therefore, these gifts, we pray,
by sending down your Spirit upon them like the dewfall, so that they may become for us
the Body and ✠ Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

At the time he was betrayed and entered willingly into his Passion, he took bread and, giving thanks, broke it,
and gave it to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND EAT OF IT,
FOR THIS IS MY BODY, WHICH WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR YOU.

In a similar way, when supper was ended, he took the chalice
and, once more giving thanks, he gave it to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND DRINK FROM IT,
FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD,
THE BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL COVENANT, WHICH WILL BE Poured OUT FOR YOU AND FOR MANY,
FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.

DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

Celebrant: The mystery of faith.

All: We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

Celebrant: Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his Death and Resurrection, we offer you, Lord,
the Bread of Life and the Chalice of salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you.

Humbly we pray that, partaking of the body and Blood of Christ, we may be gathered into one by the Holy Spirit.
Remember, Lord, your Church, Spread throughout the world,
and bring her to the fullness of charity, together with Francis our Pope, and Brendan our Bishop, and all the clergy.

Remember also, Lord, your servants whom you have been pleased to confirm today by bestowing the Holy Spirit and keep them in your grace.

Remember also our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection, and all who have died in your mercy:
welcome them into the light of your face.
Have mercy on us all, we pray, that with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with blessed Joseph, her spouse,
with the blessed Apostles, and all the Saints who have pleased you throughout the ages,
that we may merit to be coheirs to eternal life, and may praise and glorify you through your Son, Jesus Christ.

Through him, and with him, and in him,
O God, almighty Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honour is yours, forever and ever.

All: Amen.
